NO GO. A Nashville Girl Attempts Saicide in St Louis. From the St. Louis Globe of Thursday we get the following account of a Nashville girl's attempt at suicide, in that city: Minnie Turner, a bandsome social evilst, was caught shortly after midnight, by Officer Dillon, in the act throwing berself into the ri She is a resident of Poplar street and first made her appearance in that locality about three months ago. A cousin having learned that Minnie was leading a consult their own interest by calling at his life of shame informed her father, who received a very bitter letter from him upbraiding her in the strongest terms; hence her despair. She cried bitterly in the station-house and expresses a firm determination to "croak" herself when the opportunity offered.
